September 2010 - Issue 9

A message from the CEO

Joanne Jessop

Many other exciting things have been happening at Multicap. The fourth annual Multicap Festival went off with a bang once again and we would like to thank all those who donated, attended, volunteered and made the event such a success!

The festive season is just around the corner and so is the fourth annual Carols @ Multicap 2010. Carols will be held Saturday 27 November 2010, so mark it in your diaries for a low cost, family night of fun to kick off the merry season! The event cannot go on without your help, so if you would like to volunteer on the night, or even just make a donation of soft drink or bottled water, do not hesitate to contact Erin McCabe, the Communication & Events Officer.

A Brand New Look!

Exciting things are happening at Multicap. While we have a brand new look, as always, our focus remains on our core values.

Providing support, respite and a network for carers and families of people with high needs disabilities.

Genuine commitment to individuality, potential and high quality of life.

Ensuring a sustainable future and community support.
