Grab a coffee to support people with disability At the Monte Lupo Gallery Café magical fairy grove

Serving a great cup of coffee to his customers at the Monto Lupo Gallery Café is more than just a job to Zac (pictured).

Zac, an assisted employee, is so passionate about his work as a barista at the Eight Mile Plains café that he will remember your coffee order from your first visit.

Zac will be serving up his best coffee (and tea) during a special week of celebrations from 3-8 April when the café is transformed into a magical fairy grove for the young and young at heart.

Monte Lupo fairy storytellers will entertain the kids while mum, dad and carers have a cuppa and browse the sculptures and textiles made on site by Monte Lupo artists.

The week will culminate in a Teddy Bears Picnic, with entertainment, picnic food and prizes for the best-dressed teddy bears.

Monte Lupo Arts supervisor Cheryl Baker said everyone was welcome to join in the week of celebrations.

‘The Monte Lupo Gallery Café is a special place and we look forward to welcoming our regulars and some new friends during this week of magical fun,’ she said.

Monte Lupo Gallery Café is an innovation of Multicap.
