Dream comes true for 'biggest Broncos fan'

A dream will come true tomorrow night for one of the Brisbane Broncos' biggest fans.

Multicap customer David has been a hard-core Broncos fan for as long as he can remember and on Friday night he will watch his team play live from a corporate box at Suncorp Stadium.

"I'm so excited! It can't stop thinking about it," David said.

The opportunity for David and ten other Multicap customers is all thanks to Multicap Ambassador and North Queensland Toyota Cowboys Jake Granville and his friends at Schwarz Excavations.

Schwarz Excavations have kindly donated the use of their corporate box – just two boxes along from the Cronulla coaching staff - for Friday night's Brisbane Broncos vs. Cronulla Sharks game.

Jake will stream live into the corporate box via Facetime to chat with his guests.

Multicap Chief Executive Officer Joanne Jessop said this was the opportunity of a lifetime for the ten Multicap customers.

'We are so grateful to our ambassador Jake Granville and Schwarz Excavations for making this happen,' she said.

'Multicap's sole purpose is to enhance the life of people with disability and their family, and being able to support our customers to have a social experience like watching a live football game from a corporate box in a safe and positive way is something they will never forget.'
