Experienced disability leader joins Multicap Board

Ms Angela Tillmanns has been appointed to the board of leading Queensland disability support service, Multicap Limited.

Ms Tillmanns joined the Multicap Board in June 2017 following her retirement from disability support service CPL Choice Passion Life in December 2016.

Ms Tillmanns said she was delighted to join the Multicap Board to support the organisation through the transition to the NDIS and beyond. Ms Tillmanns' other roles include being a Director of Access Arts and the Chair of the Queensland Maritime Museum.

'One of my goals has been to advocate for the NDIS to become a reality for people with disability,' she said. 'I was proud to lead CPL into the NDIS world and now I am delighted to support Multicap through the next stages of the NDIS as it continues to roll out throughout Queensland.'

'Multicap is a great organisation and I am excited to be part of its future.'

Multicap Board Chair David Eades welcomed Ms Tillmanns' appointment.

'Angela has extensive experience in the disability sector having been chief executive of CPL for nine years before her retirement last year,' Mr Eades said.

'We are delighted that Angela has accepted the position and look forward to welcoming her to the Board and working together to strengthen Multicap's position as a leader in the Queensland disability sector.'
