New appointments for Multicap's senior executive team

Multicap has welcomed two new members to its senior executive team.

Mr Mike Goodall has been appointed to the new role of Chief Commercial Officer and Ms Kate Johnson has accepted the position of Chief Employee Experience Officer.

Multicap Chief Executive Officer Joanne Jessop said the appointments followed a restructure of the organisation's senior leadership team.

"The new structure assists us to provide better services for our customers, create better alignment and efficiency in our corporate services areas and in being an employer of choice," Joanne said.

"We are delighted to welcome Mike and Kate to Multicap's senior executive management team."

Mike's appointment with Multicap follows more than nine years with national coach operator Greyhound Australia where he was the General Manager of Commercial and Operations.

"It's an exciting time of change in the disability sector as our customers transition to the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)," Mike said.

"I'm looking forward to supporting Multicap and our customers through this change and into the future."

Kate has spent the past 18 months as the Head of Employee Experience at Endeavour Foundation, and prior to that she worked across commercial and mining sectors in Rio Tinto and Pacific Aluminium, including positions in Weipa, Gove and Brisbane.

Multicap has also welcomed Ms Kerry Clifford to the position of General Manager Marketing and Communications. Kerry joins Multicap with extensive experience in marketing and communications across corporate, government and not-for-profit, including more than a decade with Surf Lifesaving Queensland.
